

True Colors

Tribal-inspired prints and accessories add a jolt of energy to your spring wardrobe. by mary o'regan

Our new favorite designer

Vivid colors, geometric shapes and breezy knits combine for an electrifying Spring 2011 collection by L.A. designer Mike Gonzalez. We're talking tribal-print shorts, slouchy t-shirts and easily layered scoop-neck tanks. Check out Gonzalez's spring line at Bumber-shute in Edina.

Make a Statement

Tribal pieces make a bold statement, so let them take center stage, starting your outfit with a neutral foundation like black leggings or skinny jeans. But if you're feeling brave and want to mix a couple of prints, try to maintain the same tone, whether it's bright, muted or mostly one color family.

Alice + Olivia from OPM, $253

“Tribal elements look fresh with color-blocking and structured garments.”

- Andrea Oseland, designer, Cocoquette

Accessorize

The tribal trend doesn't start and stop with clothes—dress up your summer basics with dangly earrings, beaded necklaces and eye-catching wovens.

Cocoquette from Cliché, $140

Blacklist Vintage, $12

Matta from Il Vostro, $76

+ Shop this trend

Il Vostro → 50th and France, Edina, ilvostroboutique.com

OPM → Excelsior & Grand, St. Louis Park, opmboutique.com

Blacklist Vintage → 25 E. 26th St., Mpls., blacklistvintage.com

Cliché → 24th and Lyndale, clichempls.com

Picky Girl → 949 Grand Ave., St. Paul, pickygirlmn.com

Bumbershute → 50th and France, Edina, facebook.com/bumbershute

Covered → 1201 Lagoon, Mpls., shopcovered.com

Len Druskin → Edina & Mpls., lendruskin.com

STYLEDLIFE → Galleria, Edina, styledlife.com